Cape Breton Sailing Summit Set for April 14

The NSYA is pleased to announce that in conjunction with NS Health & Wellness and Sport Nova Scotia we will hosting the first ever Cape Breton Sailing Summit, bringing together those interested in growing the sport in the region on Saturday, April 14 at the Bras d'Or Yacht Club in Baddeck.

Instructor Clinic Schedule Now Posted

The dates for the 2012 CYA Instructor Clinics that NSYA will be delivering this year are now posted on our website. You can find all the details here.

Note that the Theory Component, the CANSail Fundamental Course, is only being offered once this Spring and that is over the Easter long weekend. Make sure to let new instructors know.

Yacht Clubs Successful with Sport Fund Applications

5 sailing programs from across Nova Scotia were recipients of more than $15,000 in funding support ast month from the Sport Nova Scotia Sport Fund program. Funds will be directed to the purchase of new boats and equipment as well as develop and support new programs at the Clubs.

The next Sport Fund application deadline is September 1. See here for more details.

Flinn and Burns to Represent Canada at Youth Worlds

Max Flinn and Andrew Burns from the RNSYS have been named to the Canadian Sailing Team that will compete at the 2012 Youth World Sailing Championships in Ireland this August. The team will be sailing in the I420 class. Brian Todd from St. Margaret's Bay is the Canadian team leader for the event. Full details here.

The team was also named Sport Nova Scotia Team of the Month for February.

NSYA Now on Twitter & Facebook

The NSYA has jumped on the Social Media bandwagon! In December we set up a Facebook Fan Page (Nova Scotia Yachting Association) and a Twitter page (NSYachting).

You can find links to both on the front page of our website.
